GENERAL

ACCIDENT FIRE AND LIFE

ASSURANCE CORPORATION. LTD.

Chief Offices—

GENERAL BUILDINGS, PERTH, SCOTLAND.

GENERAL BUILDINGS, ALDWYCH, LONDON, W.C.

F. Norie-Miller, J.P., Director and General Manager,

To whom Notice of Claims under the following conditions must be sent within seven days of Accident.

£250 TWO HUNDRED and FIFTY POUNDS will be paid by the above Corporation to the legal personal representatives of any person who is killed by an accident causing material damage to the passenger train or steamer connecting with the Mainland, or tramway car or public omnibus (excluding char-a-bancs) in Buteshire, in which the deceased was travelling as a ticket bearing or paying passenger, or who shall have been fatally injured thereby, should death result within one calendar month after such accident, Provided that the person so killed or injured had upon his or her person (or had left at home) this coupon, with his or her usual signature, written prior to the accident, in the space provided below, which, together with the giving of notice within 7 days to the above Corporation is the essence of this contract.

This Insurance only applies to persons over 14 and under 65 years of age, is subject to the conditions stated above and contained in the General Accident Fire and Life Assurance Corporation Act, 1907, does not extend to cover death caused by or resulting from war or invasion, and holds good from 1st August, 1928 to 31st July, 1929.

No person can recover under more than one coupon Ticket in respect of the same risk.

Signature

This Coupon must not be cut out, but left intact in the 1928-1929 issue of the BUTE COUNTY DIRECTORY, as that, being dated, forms the only evidence of its currency.

PREFACE TO 1928-29 EDITION.

WE have again pleasure in producing another issue of our hardy Annual. Notwithstanding the high prices prevalent (which we do not proportionately follow), we have maintained the four distinct departments of this publication, and are pleased they are appreciated.

Rothsay is, of course, the most prosperous. We would like to see its spirit of enterprise spreading among the rural districts. They have each and all something to be proud of. These cannot be properly appreciated until better known.

This DIRECTORY is not only at hand for reference at all times throughout the whole county, but it is also ready for reference in the public libraries of Scotland, England, Ireland and Wales, and also in numerous business houses and agencies in busy centres ; and we are particularly anxious that nothing of benefit to Buteshire is omitted, but that all interests have a good show, and everything brought thoroughly up to date.

The Public Libraries as a rule do not subscribe to other than the few large National Directories. The more numerous and detailed District Directories would cost too much. For years we have sent, complimentary, copies of ours—which are much appreciated ; and we are prepared to increase this number by forwarding other free copies to any Libraries be named by customers giving orders to the value of £1.

As our Advertising friends appreciate the continued distribution of their announcements facing the ordinary reading matter, we, with prompt receipt of orders, will keep permanent this decided benefit.

Those who wish Lists of Householders (arranged in Streets and Wards) can get that in the Official Voters' Roll—in whole or in parts.

It will be noticed that our Accident Assurance coupon is increased from £100 to £250.

Our best thanks are again accorded to those who have in any way helped us in this compilation. It takes long and careful vigilance to ascertain and give effect to the continual changes.

HIGGIE & CO., PRINTERS and PUBLISHERS
ROTHESAY, July, 1928.

P.S.—Will the many persons who consult the BUTE COUNTY DIRECTORY in the Libraries, Reading Rooms, Banks, Offices, Shops, etc., throughout the County and beyond it, free of charge, please remember that they are indebted for the privilege to our Subscribers and Advertisers.

This useful handbook of useful local information is again issued - - - -
It is quite indispensable for those carrying on business in or with the county —Buteman.

The new edition of the Bute County Directory for 1927-28, published by Messrs Higgin & Co., Rothesay, maintains the reputation of the publication as a comprehensive record of activities and information of interest to the county. The directory comprises county and burghal information, lists of public officials and society office-bearers, agricultural and fishery statistics, and householders and traders. The calendar, with anniversaries for each date, is in reality a compact history of the county.—

As far as we can see, the information about Millport and Cumbrae is quite correct and thoroughly reliable, so we may take it for granted that the rest of the matter is the same. The book, which runs into 144 pp., should be extremely useful and convenient for the residents of the county of islands, as well as to visitors, especially those who have business dealings with the inhabitants.—Largs and Millport News

This useful publication is again to hand. The publishers have been so enterprising as regards its compilation that the Directory is now an absolute necessity to business people who have dealings with the picturesque County of Bute. It should be noted that the Directory also contains a useful almanac.—Ardrossan Herald,

"One of the most gratifying messages of good will that has reached us this season comes from Rothesay, Scotland, in the form of a 'Heather Christmas Card' issued by Messrs Higgie & Co., of that favourite resort. . . . The two inside pages are surrounded with mottoes, every one of which breathes a true Scottish sentiment of good will to absent relatives or acquaintances. Along with this card Messrs Higgie & Co., send us a copy of their guide to 'Bonnie Scotland's Resorts,' a wonderful little compendium of descriptive and historical information."—New Zealand Times, Wellington.

"They're faur, faur awa', but their hearts are kind and true—

The auld hoose at hame is ever in their view :

The Bonnie Heilan heather and the hilltaps clad wi' snaw—

Their hearts are aye in Scotland though they're faur, faur awa'."

LONG LIVE THE BUTE DIRECTORY

The Opinions of the Press and the Acknowledgments of Libraries are as complimentary as ever. The "Glasgow Evening News" makes the following appreciation of "Local Colour."—The compilers of the Bute County Directory have an ingenious method of making up the local colour and stimulating local pride instead of filling up the Calendar with the stock anniversaries. they have put against each date a local happening." Thus—[Two events mentioned]. "It is certainly an idea that makes for 'atmosphere.'"

The Helensburgh and Gareloch Times says this useful hand-book is brimful of information regarding the County of Bute. The public officials, lists of householders and business people in this popular health resort will be most serviceable. Notwithstanding the greatly increased cost of production, the price of two shillings has been maintained.

COUNTY OF BUTE.

THE COUNTY OF BUTE comprises the seven islands in the Firth of Clyde, viz —BUTE, the most populous; ARRAN, the largest; the GREAT and LITTLE CUMBRAES, off the Ayrshire Coast; HOLY ISLE and PLADDA, off Arran; and INCH-MARNOCK, off Bute.

The total AREA OF THE COUNTY (land and water, exclusive of tidal water) is 139,658 acres, of which 53,510 are mountain and heath lands used for grazing. 3,806 acres are under plantations, and 794 are covered with water. There are 25,981 acres under all kinds of crops, bare fallow and grass, which is a gradual inroad on the mountain heath and hitherto uncultivated land.

The principal INDUSTRIES are agriculture, horticulture, and fishing. The islands possess great and varied natural attractions, and are in the forefront as holiday resorts.

The Population of the COUNTY (including its Burghs of ROTHESAY and MILLPORT) in 1801 was 11,791; 1831, 14,151; 1861, 16,331; 1881, 17,657. In 1891 it was 18,248 (8,057 males and 10,197 females); and in 1901, 18,786 (8,412 males and 10,374 females)—being an increase of 255 in the ten years—2·1 per cent. There were 4,270 inhabited houses in the islands.

For 1911, the figures were as follows :—

	Males.	Females.	Total.	Revised total.
Arran - - -	2,169	2,402	4,571	4,628*
Bute (including Rothesay)	5,081	6,781	11,799	11,851
Cumbræ - - -	704	992	1,696	1,707

*The increased total issued in the Quarterly Return of the Registrar-General compared with the returns lodged with the Sheriff-Clerk, may be accounted for by the enumeration of the shipping.

the decreases since 1901 are as follows : Arran, 209; Bute, 330; Cumbræ, 62—601.

The population at the postponed 1921 census [taken in June instead of April] for the county, was 33,711 (13,880 males and 19,831 females)—being an increase of 15,525 over 1911.

Editor, JOHN DOUGLAS, F.S.A.Scot.

6 St Mary's Grove, Barnes Common, London, S.W., 13, 4th December, 19—
Messrs HIGGIE & Co., Printers and Publishers, Rothsay.

Dear Sirs,—Thank you very much for sending me the assortment of ivy leaves, which have been much admired. I showed them to several Scots on St Andrew's Day, and in each case the verdict has been the same. The leaves were considered a marvel.

It may interest you to see my Year-Book, a copy of which I enclose. Please accept with my best wishes. Believe me, yours faithfully,
JOHN DOUGLAS.

Parish of North Bute.

THIS is the northern portion of the island of Bute. Port-Bannatyne, its principal village, is two and a-half miles from Rothesay, with which it is connected by tramway. Kames Castle, in the vicinity, is said to be the oldest inhabited castle in the country, and was the ancient seat of the Bannatynes. The village was named after that family—two brothers of whom (John and Gilbert)—received a charter from King Robert the Bruce, for services rendered at Banaockburn.

At the 1921 census, (taken in June instead of April) the parish contained 1201 males and 1529 females—total, 2730.

The Isle of Arran.

THIS island, the largest in the group, is famous for the grandeur of its scenery and the variety of its geological deposits. The island is 36 miles in length, 20 in breadth, and is divided into two parishes—Kilbride on the east, and Kilmory on the west. The late King Edward and Queen Alexandra spent a very pleasant holiday in the island after their postponed Coronation in August, 1902, and witnessed some very interesting sheep dog trials—which lengthened their stay

CHARM of the HEATHER

A SPRIG OF SCOTS HEATHER is as lightly thought of at home as a drink of cold water (of which there is more than enough to spare), but it is an inspiration and a valued reminder of the pleasantest of memories to Scots and their friends abroad.

The exchange of national floral emblems will yet become exceedingly popular among those who work for human brotherhood.

We produced Victory Commemoration Bookmarks—in connection with the Armistice, the Signing of Peace and the succeeding Joy Day Celebrations,—which were considered very appropriate.

Remember Friends Abroad.

While enjoying holidays remember to gather sprigs to send to friends abroad, or in response to appeals you will see in leading Scottish weekly newspapers.

We have for years sent boxesfull of heather to friends and societies abroad. We frequently respond to newspaper appeals, and the following is a sample of the acknowledgments received :—

East London, C. P., So. Africa, 18th Dec.

Mr George Higgle, 22 Bridge St., Rothesay, Scotland.

On behalf of the East London Caledonian Society I wish to thank you for being so kind in responding to my appeal for heather, which was sold on our Patron Saint's Day, and realised the very handsome sum of £265 5/11, and has been forwarded to the fund for disabled Sailors and Soldiers. The heather was received in first-class condition, and was much prized —Yours faithfully, JAMES FORBES, Convener of Heather Committee.

It is not only Scots abroad who enjoy a sprig of something that actually grew at home. The Glasgow 'Evening Times,' while the above acknowledgment was on the ocean, printed the following ;—"Flower girls in Argyle Street are making brave display with the mimosa, which comes to us from the Continent before the swallows or even the daffodils dare. It is one of the indications, after the shortest day, that somewhere the sun is shining, and that winter is waning. Anstralian in town are greatly cheered by the golden glory, for the mimosa is the wattle of their homeland, carrying with it the same significance as the heather to a Scot abroad."

Colonials and others on holiday in this country, have thanked us personally for sending them souvenirs of Scotland when far away; and others have reciprocated by sending preserved leaves and flowers from their distant lands.

The exchange of national floral emblems will yet become exceedingly popular.

Botanical Specimens go through the post at letter, sample or parcel rates.

BUSINESS Education

SHORTHAND TYPEWRITING, ESPERANTO, AND BOOK-KEEPING.

MR HIGGIE'S CLASSES FOR PRACTICAL INSTRUCTION are conducted during the two Winter Quarters--October till December and January till March.

PRIVATE TUITION BY ARRANGEMENT.

Shorthand continues to be taught with a view to its subsequent usefulness in Business and Professionally.

In Typewriting special attention is devoted to Punctuation and Capitalisation—a thorough knowledge of which is absolutely necessary in Practical Printing and cannot longer be neglected by those aspiring to be First-Class Typists.

Esperanto.—This wonderful International Language is already used for Business and Pleasure in all parts of the world. Mr HIGGIE is in touch with important regions all over the world, and regularly corresponds with persons everywhere—notwithstanding their different national languages.

This auxiliary language anticipates the happy time when there will be “Peace on earth and good will to men,” which is coming yet in spite of the present times of “great tribulation”—caused by covetousness, selfishness, greed, and wanton hindrance to peaceful re-construction. The efficacy of the International language in tracing missing friends and making new ones has been and is being repeatedly evidenced.

Anticipating the boom in International Trading after the World War, experiments by means of inter-correspondence in Esperanto are being made by business firms throughout the world with eminently satisfactory results. It is not the tyrants but the “meek who shall inherit the earth.” The blatant, self-righteous and arrogant despots were beaten, but Righteousness is yet to be exalted, and frightfulness loathed. The longed-for League of Nations is evolving, when harmony and good-will shall yet reign in spite of all present discord and opposition—but not without many sacrifices, much service and suffering. Prosperity will not come through desiring something for nothing, but through universal patient industry for the public good.

Book-Keeping.—Instruction given in Book-Keeping and other Up-to-Date Business Methods. A Advertisement Writing is a Present Day Enviably Profession, and the ground-work and minutiae have long been familiar to Mr Higgle, a practical Printer.

Messrs HIGGIE & COY.'S ESPERANTO PUBLICATIONS are known, read and appreciated throughout the whole civilised world. Many of the contributions are written by up-to-date foreigners.

BONNIE SCOTLAND SOUVENIRS

"O, Rowan Tree."

With the Compliments of the Season from (Sender's name written here).

Make glad the hearts of absent friends at the Festive Season by sending, along with that "dainty literary dish," "BONNIE SCOTLAND'S RESORTS," specially prepared and mounted leaves of that remembrancer "O' Rowan Tree and Infancy." Book and flower card, 5d per pair, 4s per doz. post free, from

Higgie & Co., Publishers, Rothesay.

Forget Me Not.

With the Compliments of the Season from (Sender's name written here).

This modest flower speaks a language dear to all true friends, and its real presence at the Festive Season will revive precious memories of long ago. 5d per pair, or 4s per dozen, post free.

Higgie & Co., Publishers, Rothesay.

"Ilka Blade o' Grass keeps its ain Drap o' Dew."

With the Compliments of the Season from (Sender's name written here)

Even the emerald carpet of Bonnie Scotland is eloquent with lofty sentiment, when clothed in the poetic language of her sons. Preserved grasses, mounted on card, with appropriate verse, and issued as a supplement to that "dainty literary dish," "Bonnie Scotland's Resorts," makes a charming Christmas or New Year present 5d per pair, or 4s per dozen, post free, from

Higgie & Co., Publishers, Rothesay.

Private Christmas Cards,

with posies of Real Scotch Flowers.

Printed with Special Greetings, from 3s per dozen, post free, from

HIGGIE & CO., PUBLISHERS, ROTHESAY.

A real flower or leaf pu'd from the bosom of Bonnie Scotland is more appreciated among our kith and kin abroad than is comprehended by those who stay at home. If it was only known the enthusiasm such tokens create abroad, they would be despatched with avidity along with "Bonnie Scotland's Resorts."

It will be obviously necessary, to avoid disappointment, to order early.

Floors pu'd in the Hills and Dells o' Bonnie Scotland, Preserved, Phonetic Longhand.

A DISTINCT LETTER FOR EACH SOUND.

WE are indebted to Rev. J. KNOWLES, formerly Missionary, L. M. S., Travancore, South India, for the accompanying stereotype page of Phonetic Script :

The spelling is the same as is necessary for the World-Famous System of Shorthand Writing.

The Longhand as well as the Shorthand can be adapted to Foreign Languages.

This missionary worked at a common alphabet for the many and widely different languages in this illiterate land. The up-to-date Japanese are discarding the Chinese hieroglyphic for the extended Roman alphabet to represent their language.

IN this compilation we are preparing reliable Biographical Sketches of, among others—

ALEXANDER SELKIRK, the Fifeshire Scot, whose adventures inspired Daniel Defoe to write the well known and long-lived thrilling story of Robinson Crusoe ; and

PAUL JONES, the Kirkcudbrightshire Scot who became the founder of the American Navy.

We recently noticed a Highlander's splendid defence of the Gaelic language from the sneers of the unsympathetic and ignorant. The old clans had terrible feuds, and their successors are as sturdy though they cherish memories in a better way. There is very much to admire in the integrity of our ancestors, which, if properly guided, will prove an incalculable blessing to the human race. What a glorious prospect!

Peace hath victories as well as war, and Scots are not likely to be behind. We have a splendid record So have others. I let us draw nearer together for peace and good - you in your small corner and me in mine to him to be misrepresentation. We don't know Gaelic but admire the Celt's veneration for what was dear to his ancestors. We will get a Celt to translate this vigorous article, and from his dictation take it down. It is longhand * In our travels we have met many who print it in type. This is printed to him to be misrepresented. We don't know Gaelic but admire the Celt's veneration for what was so dear to his ancestors. We will get a Celt to translate this vigorous article, and from his dictation take it down in shorthand, and then print it in phonetic longhand.* In our travels we have met many people who could speak English fluently but couldn't read it, and had a horror of writing it. Scottish Gaelic is printed (like English) by means of the roman alphabet. For representing the growing English language it is quite inadequate, and requires to be brought up-to-date. Why linger longer? It is one of the aims of this publication to draw attention to the necessity for spelling reform, by (in the common print) inviting inspection of the inconsistencies all have got so familiar with as to oblivious of. Our letters have as many aliases as undesirable aliens. The first letter has different sounds in at, alms, ate and all, and the sound takes other letters to represent it, as in the words eight and there. B is an unnecessary guest in debt and dumb. C is sounded both as k and s in accident and is oftener used than k for that hard sound. E is found a silent letter all over. It gives a different sound to the a in mat and mate but the a in gave and have are not affected by it. Gh is used for f in enough but ph is the substitute in elephant. It holds its own in fun, but in doubled in off. G and J are changeable: the twins words litigation and litigious are not pronounced alike and j has another sound in hallelujah. H is largely ignored, and is pronounced where it is an alien. I has different sounds in mind, did and marine. J has different letters in jump and gem. L is silent in calf but doubled in kill. O has many representatives as in hop, old, foe, bear, floor. R is often slurred, but in other words gets unnecessarily doubled. S is generally pronounced z, but gets doubled in ass, is sounded sh in sure and is substituted by t in martial. T is singled, doubled, and absorbed as h in Thomas. U has a myriad of representatives. Puzzle, find them. On the other hand, there are words of different spellings and meanings which are pronounced alike: Example, I am sure I saw Mr Shaw on the shore.

Other letters have also other sounds than those given them in the alphabet. Knowing this, in our translation into Gaelic* we will use Pitman's Phonetic alphabet extended, so that all who know it can read correctly at sight. ~~Of~~ Like the staff notation in music Pitman's Fonetik Alphabet can be adapted to all. SPELING REFORM

THIS IS NOT A NEW DESIRE; BUT BESPEAKS
A GREATLY INCREASED INTEREST IN A VERY IMPORTANT SUBJECT AT THE PRESENT
TIME. Under the appropriate heading,

“A Wasted Year,”

there appeared, on 3rd May, 1924, a Special Article in the Evening Citizen, Glasgow, showing that this is the time lost in the life of every child in Britain while acquiring the irregular and inconsistent spelling of our language.

The SIMPLIFIED SPELING SOCIETY is promoting a petition to present to the Prime Minister, calling for the appointment of a Royal Commission—including Scholars, Teachers, Men of Letters and Men of Business—to consider the whole question, and report.

Experiments already made by enthusiasts have proved eminently satisfactory, and shows how much valuable time will be saved for other studies by the removal of the spelling incubus.

The Speling Reformers include all classes of the people, and the question is not a party one.

The Simplified Speling Society of Great Britain, and the Speling Reform Association of U. S. A., have issued the first number of a joint quarterly journal, “Speling.”

Shorthand could not be written without a Reformed and Phonetic Alphabet.

BONNIE SCOTLAND'S RESORTS

This Publication was conceived by a Scot abroad, and printed on his return. It has passed through several editions, and another is in preparation. Prices, 4d, 6d, 1s and 2/6.

BELEGA SKOTLANDO

The introductory pages of the above publication printed in Esperanto. It had the honour of being the first printed National Guide-Book in the International Language. It was at the 2nd Kongreso Internacia (at Geneva) in 1906, and has been at the other Tuta Mondo Kongresoj since. A few copies still on hand, price 2d.

SCOTTISH SCENERY

This Publication has the typical Scottish Scenery printed by Valentine & Sons, and was issued in commemoration of the first International Esperanto Congress held in Britain (Cambridge, 1907). It was very highly commended, and inspired the Japanese for their Great Exhibition, removed to the White City, at London, in 1910. A special issue was prepared in commemoration of the 18th International Kongreso (at Edinburgh) in 1926. A few remaining copies, 9d each, post free.

BONNIE SKOTLAND

The introductory pages of Bonnie Scotland's Resorts have also been translated into Pitman's Phonetic Longhand, in commemoration of the Centenary of the Inventor (January, 1913). This spelling (by sound) is known all over the world by shorthand writers, is easily acquired, and is far and away the best solution of the spelling reform controversy. To keep the flag of Spelling Reform flying we are preparing new brochures. A few of the present on hand, price 2d each.
